Narrative on the history, owners and knowledge of this structure

The Craftsman style bungalow home at 923 W. Oak has an interesting history.

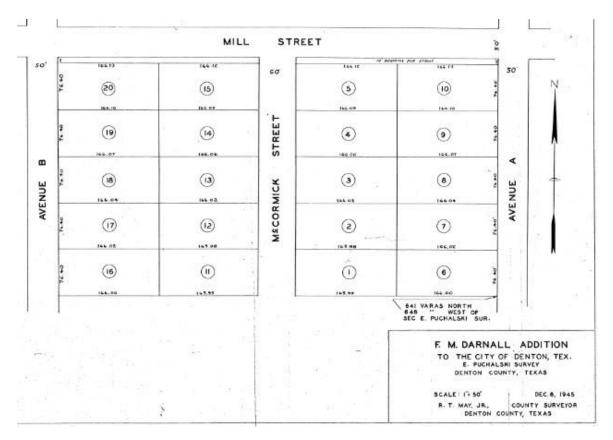

Originally, a home was built on the lot referenced as 921 W. Oak about 1913 by Arthur (A. C.) and Willie Rayzor. They built their home next door to Arthur's parents, Eva and J. Newton Rayzor at 1003 W. Oak also built in 1913. This map view of the south side of West Oak is from the Sanborn 1921 map and is identical to the 1917 Sanborn map of the same section of West Oak.

A.C. and Willie Rayzor sold their home to P.E. McDonald in 1917 (warranty deed is included below). McDonald was the superintendent of Honey Grove schools and then joined the faculty of the North Texas Normal College by 1914 or "Teacher's College" (presently UNT). McDonald lived in the home from 1917 to 1945 while he was the Register of the Normal College.

McDonald sold his home to F.M. Darnall, an English professor at present day UNT in 1945. Dr. Darnall joined the English faculty in 1932. He served in the Red Cross during WWI and then completed his studies at the University of Tennessee and then at the University of Leipzig in Germany.

In 1945, Erie and F.M. Darnall realized the need to develop housing for those leaving their military service at the end of WWII. They created a small housing addition just south of present day UNT named the Darnall Addition with 20 lots. Located between Avenue A and B with McCormick Street in between, the addition in now between Margie and Underwood Streets. Most of the homes were built in early 1946 before his death in June 1946; however, his wife continued to build home in the addition until about 1950.

Darnall Addition of 20 homes – December 1945

Mill Street, north boundary, is now called Margie Street

When F.M. Darnall died in June 1946, they were living at 1608 W. Oak. His wife, Erie Darnall moved the original Rayzor home in September 1946 from 921 W. Oak to 805 Ector Street.

Callie Ratliff and Nettie Shultz, living at 1011 W. Oak, purchase 503 W. Hickory from Linwood Robinson on October 16, 1948 with the stipulation that it would be moved in 30 days. Linwood Robinson and his wife, Leta Robinson, had purchase 503 W. Hickory from Alma and H.L. Gentle in June 1948. To prepare for their new florist shop, Linwood Robinson Florist, the house was sold to be moved.

On October 29, 1948, Callie Ratliff and Nettie Shultz purchase the "921" lot from Erie Darnall. They divided the original lot into two lots and moved the house from 503 W. Hickory to this new location with this house resuming the number of 921 W. Oak. The record is silent on the exact details of the second home on this lot, 923 W. Oak, but notes are made in the City Tax Records that the house was reconditioned in 1949 with a building permit granted for a remodel of the house on August 10, 1949 for the amount of $2,500. The same notes of reconditioning are made in the City Tax Records for 921 W. Oak also in 1949. The assumption is that the house at 923 W. Oak was also moved to this location for no liens or construction permits are located or granted by the City of Denton for this address.

Callie Ratliff and Nettie Shultz created two rent houses at 921 and 923 W. Oak. The earliest mention of a resident is Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gafford living at 923 W. Oak in 1951. Ratliff and Shultz sell 923 W. Oak in 1958 to Elisabeth and Joseph Doblin and the east side of the original lot of 921 W Oak side in 1959.

DARNALL FUNERAL RITES SET SATURDAY

Funeral services for Dr. Frank Mauzy Darnall, 62, professor of English at North Texas State College for the past 14 years, who died Wednesday, will be held Saturday at 3 p. m. in the St. Barnabas Episcopal Church.

Burial will be in Roselawn Memorial Park. The body will be held at Schmitz Funeral Home until time for the services.

Active pallbearers will be Floyd Stovall, Arthur Sampley, Mitchell Wells, Garrett Ballard, Ernest Clifton and Waldo McNeir.

Born June 21, 1883 in Milton N. C., Dr. Darnall had studied at the University of Tennessee and at the University of Lelpzig, Germany. During the first World War he was active in American Red Cross work.

Survivors include his widow, a son, Frank M. Darnall; and two daughters, Linda M. Darnall of Denton and Mrs. Richard Bonaventure of New York.

Storms Wreak Havoc

Fierce Winds Blast Through North Texas During Early Hours

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Thunderstorms packing fierce winds and driving rain whipped across the border from Oklahoma early Friday and lashed much of North and Central Texas.

A tornado and severe weather alert for the Sherman-Denison area in North Texas, issued by the weather station at Perrin Air Force Base, expired at 6 a.m. with no reports of funnels, Power lines were down in Dallas, Richardson, Fort Worth and Denison.

At least 50 streets including one major highway were blocked in Dallas by fallen tree limbs and electric power lines in the wake of the storm that blew through the city about 3 a.m.

There were no reports of injuries.

At least a half dozen stores in downtown Fort Worth lost plate glass windows, and the Dallas po-
